No additional charge is made for drama and music lessons taken in class, all dance and sports classes, stationery and text books up to G.C.S.E. Level. Payment is due three times a year. A termly school dinner charge is added to the fees.

Examination fees for vocational and academic subjects are not included. G.C.S.E. examination fees are divided over three termly bills, starting in Year 10 so that all fees are paid before the examination session starts. Should a reader, scribe or invigilator be required, additional fees may apply. Any outstanding fee would mean that a pupil is ineligible to take the examinations.

PRIVATE TUITION

Per half hour, payable termly £17.00

BEFORE AND AFTER SCHOOL SUPERVISION

Per hour £ 8.00 (min 1 hour per month)

MUSICAL THEATRE COURSE From 16 years

Foundation Year £1840 (including dinner)

Years 2 & 3 £2120 (including dinner)

Text books, stationery etc., must be provided by the student.

Examination fees are not included.

GENERAL INFORMATION

One full term's written notice must be tendered for withdrawal of a pupil from Pattison College and Private Tuition or the fees have to be paid in lieu of notice. On receipt of notice the school will issue an official receipt.

All fees must be paid before commencement of term. A surcharge of £100 will be levied on all fees not paid by the due date with no exceptions.

Fees are based on the number of weeks in the school year as each term varies in length and may not be refunded if a pupil leaves or is absent from part of the course for any reason.

A non-refundable deposit of £500 is required on acceptance of a place, £425 of which will be reimbursed at the end of the child's school career.

A payment in advance Standing Order facility is available – details on application. For information about fees and accounts e-mail accounts@pattisons.co.uk

Fees are increased annually.
